CONFESSED MURDER

Man Converted Acknowledges Being an Ex-Convict.

INVESTIGATION BEING MADE

Confessed That Eight Years Ago He Killed a Man Near Fort Fairfield, Me., and Threw His Body Into the Aristook River and It Haunted Him.

Oakland, Cal., March 20.—Asserting that he has been converted by an evangelist, who has been holding meetings in this city, Earl R. Bodine, who admits that he is an ex-convict, went before Chief of Police Hodgkins today, accompanied by some evangelists and confessed that eight years ago, near Fort Fairfield, Me., he shot and killed a companion, disposing of his body by throwing it into the Aristook river. He says that as the body disappeared the dead man's eyes glared at him and ever since that time he has been unable to rid himself of those haunting eyes. An investigation is being made here and telegrams have been sent to Maine. The authorities believe the man is telling the truth.

GIFTED WITH A QUICK WIT.

How a Hostess Got Out of Difficulty When an Aristocrat Called.

The late Mrs. Gilbert, the veteran actress, was walking one day in Philadelphia about the time when Hamilton Fish was secretary of state. "Mr. and Mrs. Fish," she said, "had a grand air, and old fashioned courtesy, that introduced a new note into Washington society. They taught Washington society. They left it a city of better manners and gentler speech than it had been on their entry. "It has been said that Mrs. Fish sometimes carried her high ideas of courtesy too far. With that stricture I agree heartily. Mrs. Fish's courtesy was quixotic. "One of her rules, for instance, was to return every call she received. Her husband was constantly holding public receptions, and to these out of courtesy, many women would come who had no desire that Mrs. Fish should call upon them—who were in no position to receive her properly if she did call. "One such woman attended a Fish reception, left her card and a little later was duly honored by a call from Mrs. Fish. "It was a beautiful, mild afternoon. The fish equipage, all a-glimmer in the wintry sunshine, dashed down the narrow street and had halted before the 'vomar's shabby little house with a musical jingle of silver chains. The footman leaped from the box and opened the carriage door. Mrs. Fish descended. "The poor woman of the house—where was she all this time? She, alas! was kneeling on the sidewalk beside a bucket of hot water. Her sleeves were rolled back. She had a scrubbing brush in one hand and a cake of soap in the other. She was scrubbing her front steps. "Imagine how she felt! What would you have done in a predicament so awkward? Would you have been as wise and ready, I wonder, as the woman was? "Mrs. Fish, bending over her, said graciously: "Is Mrs. Henry Smith at home? "And Mrs. Henry Smith replied: 'No, mum, she ain't,' and went on scrubbing."

DOING THEIR DUTY.

Scores of Astoria Readers Are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidney's duty. When they fail to do this the kidneys are sick. Backache and many kidney ills follow. Urinary trouble, diabetes, Doan's Kidney Pills Cure them all. J. Blake, whose place of residence is 525 Market street, Portland, says: "I bought several boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and I scarcely think if the first had not proved satisfactory that I would have tried the second and third. I had used almost everything said to be a cure for weakened kidneys and bladder, but nothing ever gave me the satisfaction I received from Doan's Kidney Pills. They are easy to take, have no effect upon the stomach or bowels and act directly on the kidneys. I thoroughly believe from the results I received and also from observation that Doan's Kidney Pills are one preparation on the market which acts directly as represented." Emphatic endorsement can be had right here in Astoria. Drop into Chas.

NO TONGUE CAN TELL SUFFERING

From Itching and Bleeding Eczema—Pain Terrible—Body and Face Covered with Sores—Doctors and Medicines Failed.

ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE BY CUTICURA

"No tongue can tell how I suffered for five years with itching and bleeding eczema, until I was cured by the Cuticura Remedies, and I am so grateful I want the world to know, for what helped me will help others. My body and face were covered with sores. One day it would seem to be better, and then break out again with the most terrible pain and itching. I have been sick several times, but never in my life did I experience such awful suffering as with this eczema. I had made up my mind that death was near at hand, and I longed for that time when I would be at rest. I had tried many different doctors and medicines without success, and my mother brought me the Cuticura Remedies, insisting that I try them. I began to feel better after the first bath with Cuticura Soap, and one application of Cuticura Ointment. I continued with the Soap and Ointment, and have taken four bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, and consider myself well. Any person having any doubt about this wonderful cure by the Cuticura Remedies can write to my address. Mrs. Altie Eison, Bellevue, Mich."
